

A Declaration of Unity

This we owe to A.A.'s future;
to place our common welfare first;
to keep our Fellowship united.
For on A.A. unity depend our lives,
and the lives of those to come.

TRADITION 10 –

AA has no opinion on outside issues; hence the A.A. name ought never be drawn into public controversy

TRADITION OF THE MONTH

Principle: Neutrality

The Tenth Tradition

Alcoholics Anonymous has no opinion on outside issues; hence the A.A. name ought never be drawn into public controversy.

Tradition 10 Long form:

No A.A. group or member should ever, in such a way as to implicate A.A., express any opinion on outside controversial issues—particularly those of politics, alcohol reform, or sectarian religion. The Alcoholics Anonymous groups oppose no one. Concerning such matters they can express no views whatever.

This tradition states that no A.A group or member should ever express opinions on behalf of A.A. This includes opinions on risky or controversial issues like politics, policies about the sale or use of alcohol, or religion. Alcoholics Anonymous has no argument with anyone. And because of this, groups should not express views on difficult subjects.
